Rededication at Liszt plaque in August 2008

Vera Holczer, a native of Budapest, Hungary, began her piano studies at the age of nine. Her advanced studies are from CIM (Cleveland Institute of Music). Vera regularly performs on WCLV 104.9FM and is the founder and director of the Aurora School of Music. Vera Holczer and the Aurora School of Music will perform at this event.

The original Liszt plaque dedicated in 1934, four years before the Garden was dedicated in 1938.

Why Liszt in the Garden?

The Hungarian Cultural Garden was dedicated October 21, 1934, on the 123rd anniversary of the birth of Ferenc Liszt, with the unveiling of the bas-relief plaque of the world famous Hungarian composer. Ever since, the Garden has had a special link with Liszt.
