The Cleveland Hungarian Heritage Society cordially invites you and your family to join us for the following lectures and programs in the 2017 Fall series.

Please join us on the 2nd Saturday of the month at 2:00 p.m.

2017 FALL SERIES

Sept. 9th  500th Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation

Rt. Rev. Dr. Csaba Krasznai, Bishop, Calvin Synod Conference and Pastor,
First Hungarian Reformed Church of Walton Hills

Rt. Rev. Louis Medgyesi, Bishop Emeritus of Calvin Synod Conference,
Pastor of the Hungarian Reformed Church of Fairport Harbor

This year marks 500 years since Martin Luther posted his 95 Theses onto the church door of Wittenberg, Germany that launched the Protestant Reformation. Luther, a priest, an outstanding scholar and theology professor, began a thoroughgoing reform of the medieval church. The Reformation transformed millions of people’s understanding of their relationship with God. Join us for this lecture describing how the anniversary is being commemorated and how scholars and theologians understand its legacy.

Oct. 14th  Celebrating Kodály Zoltán’s Legacy

Mr. Zsolt Domotorffy, Mathematician and Scholar

This year is the 135th anniversary of Zoltán Kodály’s birth and the 50th anniversary of his death, Kodaly stands as one of the principal 20th-century composer-theoreticians of musical education. His ideas, aimed at the cultivation of musical literacy. He involved audiences in musical performances composing a large body of choral music for adults and educational pieces for children, designed to increase familiarity and provide pleasure in the process. Kodály got his theories accepted at elementary schools throughout Hungary. The results have been impressive and widely influential.

Nov. 11th  100th Anniversary of the Russian Revolution

Russia enters the centenary of the tumultuous year that ended tsarism and ushered in the 70-year communist experiment. The Russian Revolution had a huge effect on Russia and the world. Our speaker will focus on the victims of communism and outline the history and the aftermath of the Russian Revolution on Europe & beyond.

Dec. 9th  Celebrating Hungarian Christmas Traditions: Christmas Program

Mikuláš Bácsi visits the Hungarian Museum to the delight of children young and old. He passes out treats. This event includes seasonal arts and crafts as well as opportunities to learn more about Hungarian culture and history.

Activities are in English.

All lectures and programs are held at the Hungarian Heritage Museum, in The Galleria, Downtown Cleveland, with coffee and refreshments following the presentation.

On these days the Museum is open from 1-4 p.m.

$5 parking is available in the Galleria underground garage.

Suggested donation: $10 for adults and $5 for students.

A viszontlátásra!!!! See you soon!!